PRESS STATEMENT OF MARI VINDIS

Vindis dispute now resolved by agreement and subsequent Court approval

I am delighted by today's ruling at the Rolls Building, by which the court approved an agreement between the parties in respect of the three claims that were due to be heard at a 12-day trial later this year. The Court's Order ensures that my children and I will receive proper financial provision from my late husband's estate.

By way of background, there has been a successful family owned and run car dealership businesses in Cambridgeshire and the surrounding area for many years. The interests of different members of the family in the business lay at the heart of the dispute but happily these matters have now been resolved by agreement and subsequent court approval.

My children, Alex and Gaby, and I are delighted to be joining my brother-in-law Gary as owners of the business and we are looking forward to its continued success buoyed by our strong family ties.

I was with my late husband, Nigel from the age of 17 and stood alongside him as he and Gary his brother worked hard, turning their business vision into reality. Nigel had great charisma and was much admired for his business acumen and generous nature. We were married for 34 years.

In his working life, Nigel gave all he had to make the business the success it is today, together with his brother Gary. Sadly, Nigel did not live to see either of his children graduate from university but would have been so very proud of their achievements. Our son Alex works in the business and is determined to maintain the energy and vision that his father brought to the business. Alex, Gaby and I are looking forward to the continued growth and success of the company.
